THE EGYPTIAN SITUATION. French Newspapers Call on the Government to Interfere With England. London, Jan. 24.—The latest dispatches from Cairo state that the hostility of the khedive toward the English shows no signs of abating. In answering the threat uttered by Lord Cromer to the effect that a complete change of regime might be necessary in the event of resistance to might be necessary in the event of resistance to British authority the khedive replied that he yielded only to force. The khedive has been strengthened in his attitude of antagonism toward the English by denutations from the provinces headed by local officials hostile to British control. These deputations have addressed the khedive in fulsome and flattering language congratulating him on his control. language, congratulating him on his opposition to the English.

FRANCE GREATLY EXCITED. The sensation in France over the action of the British in Egypt is increasing. The course taken by England is looked upon there as proving the determination of Great Britain to persist in the occupation of Egept. The newspapers unanimously call upon the government 2 to vindicate the rights of France. LORD CROMER'S CONFIDENCE. Some surprise was expressed yesterday at the news from Cairo that Lord Cromer had expressed himself so confidently in regard to the prompt suppression of any outbreak that might occur. Today's advices give the grounds for Lord Cromer's confidence. His lordship is as-sured of the entire fidelity of the native Egyp-tian army to the British cause, and with the British army of occupation co-operating with the native troops it is believed that any attempt at insurrection would be promptly crushed.

A Cairo dispatch says that Lord Cromer called upon the khedive this morning to in-form him that the British cabinet had ordered an increase of the British parrison in Egypt. The dispatch does not state how the khedive received the news, but no doubt is felt that it had a profound impression in dissipating any idea that Mr. Gladstone intended to abandon Egypt.

Major Gen. Sir Francis Wallace Grenfell of the Egyptian army, who is now in London, was at the war office today in consultation with the Right Hon. H. Campbell-Bannerman, secretary of state for war.

It is officially stated at the war office that both Sir Francis Wallace Grenfell and Gen. Kitch-ener, the governor of Egypt, who has complete authority over the Egyptian troops, unite in guaranteeing the loyalty of the native soldiers to their English officers. For this reason chiefly the government, acting largely upon the advice and opinion of Sir Francis Wallace Grenfell, will for the present limit the amount of Souvenir Coins.

There are thus always about 150,000 young men places of these passing into the reserve. The burden of conscription is a very light one, and many are anxious to enter the army owing to the good treatment and regular pay. Exemptions are freely allowed and can also be pur-chased when a man is drawn, but not after he has once joined the colors.

The pay of a private soldier is equal to about since his arrival in southern California and is now hopeful of complete recovery. ME. T. L. HOLBROOK.

President Brick Exchange, Washington.

Dear Sir; As there appears to be a misconstruction of the circular issued by me January 16, 1823, stating the price of "the cheaper grade of Building Brick at $6 per thousand," I desire to say that the strade of brick referred to is Saimon brick, the minimum price of which is fixed by the Erick Exchange for 1893 at $6; Arch, $7; Machine Red, $8; Hand-unde Red, $8, 50. And as a member of that Exchange I cannot sell brick at less than the price above stated anywhere in the District of Co'umbia.
